To Whom It May Concern

Reference re: Fox Maintenance

First Data have been using the services of Fox Maintenance for around 10 years. We have found them to always be uniformed, professional and polite. They are competitive and with their range of multi skilled engineers deliver a wide range of goods and services, to a very high standard, delivering to time and budget, sometimes at short notice.

I would happily recommend Fox Maintenance to other clients

Yours faithfully

Managing Director Western Europe and MEA
